

BOHLKE

WILLIAM R. BOHLKE "BILLY"
PRESIDENT, CHIEF PILOT

Billy is the third generation of the family business. Also an avid aviator like his father and grandfather, Billy is rated to fly the entire Bohlke charter fleet. He also serves as an Aircraft Commander in the USAF, flying the C-130 Hercules for the Puerto Rico Air National Guard. Billy is a CFII – MEI and enjoys instructing from time to time when his busy flight schedule allows.

As head of the family business, Billy's mission is to ensure that the customer's expectations and needs are anticipated and more than met. From flight school students, fuel customers and maintenance customers, all the way to charter clients from around the world, 100% satisfaction for the client is Billy's passion.
